M/s.Nobtech).. Defendants

Mr.Dilip Rai i/b.M/s.Bharat Shah & Co. for the CORAM : SMT. NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED : 13TH APRIL 2006

P.C.:

. By an Order dated 19th December 2003, ad-interim relief was granted in terms of prayer clauses (a) and (b) except portions bracketed in red. An affidavit of service is being filed indicating that the Defendants had refused to accept service in 2003. Thereafter, by a letter dated 16th March 2006, the Defendants were once again intimated. However, the envelope containing this letter is returned with the endorsement "Int. Post".

2. The Suit has been filed for infringement of Plaintiffs' registered trade marks "KSB" and "CORA". The Plaintiffs contended that the Plaintiffs are using these marks since the year 1958 and, therefore, were granted ad-interim relief since a clear case of infringement of trade marks had been made out.

3. Ad-interim relief granted on 19th December 2003 confirmed.

4. Motion disposed of accordingly.
